Our holy Prophet (s.a.w) was born in Mecca on 17 Rabi-ul-awwal. He was the son of Abdullah (a.s) and Bibi Amina (s.a). His father died a few days before his birth.

Bibi Amina (s.a), the mother of the holy Prophet asked a lady called Halima to take care of her son so he could be brought up in the open and healthy countryside.

The Holy Prophet Mohammad (s.a.w) spent the first five years of his life with Halima and then she returned him to his mother Bibi Amina (s.a).

His mother Bibi Amina (s.a) died when he was 6 years old.

His grandfather Abd-al-Muttalib (a.s) took him into his care.

Abd-al-Muttalib (a.s) loved his grandchild very much and was very kind to him.

When his grandfather died, Prophet Mohammad (s.a.w) began to live with his uncle Abu Talib (a.s) and aunt Bibi Fatima Bint-e-Asad (s.a). They loved him as if he was their own son. When Abu Talib (a.s) went on business trips, he took his nephew along with him. This way he learnt a lot about trading.

Prophet Mohammad (s.a.w) even as a young man was very honest with people. The people, therefore, respected him very much and used to call him Al Sadiq (the truthful) and Al Ameen (the trustworthy).

It was because of his kindness and honesty that a very rich lady (Maleeka tul Arab) Khadija (s.a) asked him to marry her. The prophet (s.a.w) agreed and they got married. They had a daughter named Fatima Zahra (s.a).
