Assalamo Alaykum

The aim of this Ramadhan booklet is to get our children involved in daily activities & learn about Islam in this blessed Holy month of Ramadhan.

Specially during this pandemic of COVID-19 in which we aren't able to go to Masjids then we need to make sure that we keep our children busy so that they don't get affected mentally, physically & spiritually.

Hoping this booklet will be beneficial for you all.

We also request you to share with us if you wish; name, age, country and a pic of your child with any activity or just the activity by itself which he/she enjoyed or liked the most.

The pictures will then be posted on our Social media accounts.

The pictures can be sent to us through email mentioned below or through any of our other social media accounts mentioned at the back page.

We would love to hear feedbacks from you.

To thank Allah we should always say;

RAMADHAN AND FASTING

In the month of Ramadhan, Quran was sent down as a guidance to the people with Clear Signs of the true guidance and judgment (between right and wrong). So those of you who live to see that month should fast it, and whoever is sick or on a journey should fast the same number of other days instead. Allah wants ease and not hardship for you, so that you may complete the number of days required, glorify Allah for what He has guided you to and give thanks to Him.

إِنِّي أَنزَلْتُ فِيكُمْ الْقُرْآنَ
كِتَابَ الْوَعْدِ وَعِشْرَةَ أَهْلِ بَيْتِي
(Surah al Baqarah ayah 185)

Ramadhan and Fasting is mentioned in chapter 2 of Quran, Do you know what do we call fasting in Arabic?

It is called Sawm.

Would you write it in Arabic like the one we have written for you? Do not forget to colour.

SUHOOR

Suhoor is a special meal which we have before sun rises to keep fast
Like a very early breakfast!

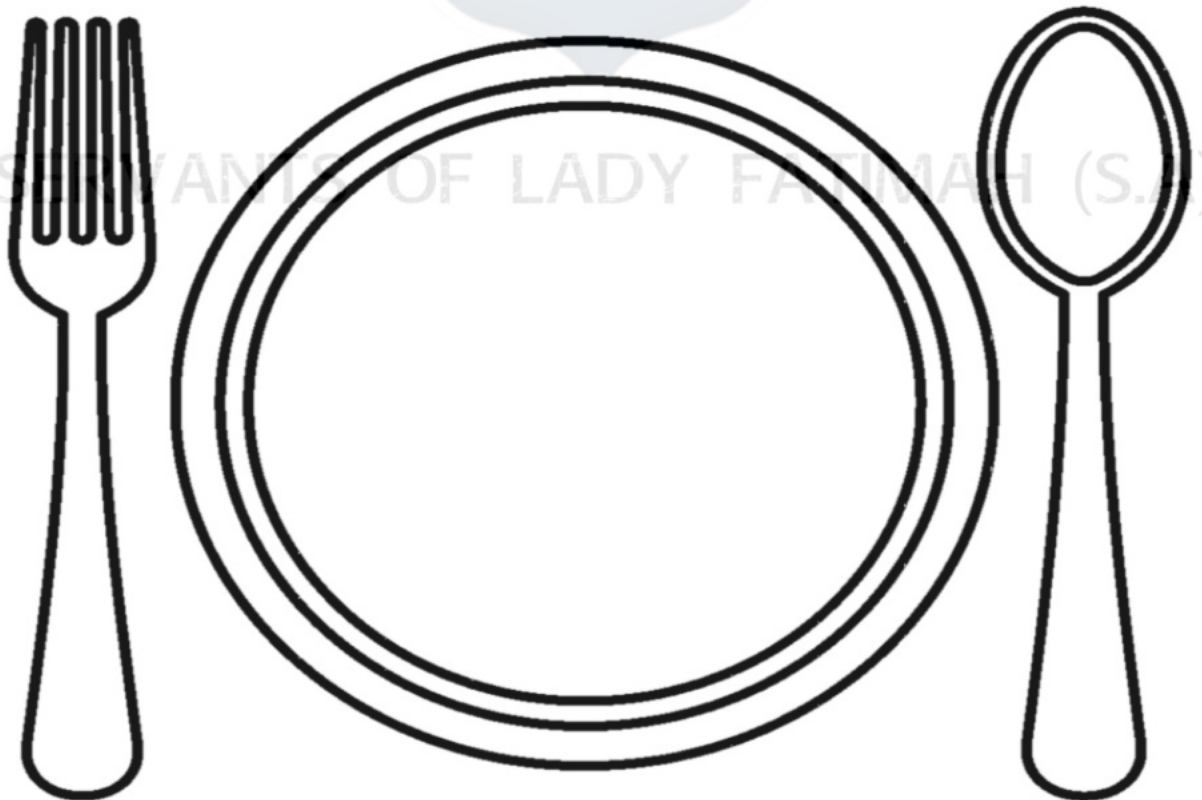

Prophet Muhammad (s.a.w.w) said:

“Have Suhoor even if it is a sip of water because Allah’s blessing is on those who have Suhoor.” (maqna’eh pg316)

After the sun starts to rise at dawn, we cannot eat or drink until the sunset, so eating Suhoor will help our body to have energy all day Insha’Allah!

- Wake up early for Suhoor do not wake up at the last minute.
- Do not forget to say Bismillah before eating.
- Have a healthy meal to have enough energy through the day.
- Do not forget to thank Allah and do niyyah for your fast after you are done with Suhoor.

Can you draw a healthy meal you would like to have in Suhoor?

WHAT RUINS OUR FAST?

Some things ruin our fast, it is better to know them so that we know not to do them.
